

Biography

Vikas Varma

Vikas Varma is SVP, Account Management, South Asia. In this role, Vikas is responsible for driving business development and managing customers for the South Asia division of MasterCard.

With extensive experience in payments technology, retail financial services and consumer products sectors, Vikas focuses on integrating people, processes and technology towards meeting customer and organization goals.. He has also been keenly involved in driving payments innovation in emerging markets.

Vikas joined MasterCard in 2005 and over the years held various roles overseeing business development & customer management, acceptance & market development and expert sales.

Prior to joining MasterCard, Vikas worked with American Express and GE Consumer Finance where he held business development and portfolio management roles.

Vikas holds a post graduate degree in business management.