

Mr. Anubrata Biswas

Mr. Anubrata Biswas is the MD & CEO of Airtel Payments Bank Ltd, the first Payments Bank in India. Airtel Payments Bank is a subsidiary of Bharti Airtel Ltd., the third largest Mobile Network Operator in the world. The Bank aims to drive financial inclusion and digital adoption in India. Mr. Biswas has an experience of over 17 years in the Banking Industry in holding multiple leadership roles across geographies. Prior to joining Airtel Payments Bank, he worked with ICICI Bank Ltd, India's second largest bank, as the Retail Business Head for South India.

Mr. Biswas started his banking career with ICICI in 2001. From 2002 onwards he was responsible for building the ICICI Bank brand in the USA and the Middle East, post which, he moved to London in 2006 to set up the Direct Banking business for ICICI Bank UK Plc, a subsidiary of ICICI Bank Limited. From 2009, he headed Retail & Private Banking, and was a member of the Management Committee for this subsidiary. Mr. Biswas moved to Mumbai from London in 2013 to take over the International Retail business for ICICI Bank Ltd. He then took over as the Zonal Head for the Bank in West Bengal from 2016-17.

Mr. Biswas was a member of the EFMA Retail Banking Advisory Council which consists of senior executives from major banks across Europe. He has a Bachelor's degree in Electrical Engineering and a Master's degree in Business Administration (MBA) from IIM, Ahmedabad. He is an avid reader, a geek and a music enthusiast.