

Dr. Fareed Ahmed – A Brief Profile

Dr. Fareed Ahmed, Executive Director, Punjab and Sind Bank is known to be a practical banker, strategic planner and acknowledged for his quick decisions which are appropriate for development of any organization.

He started his career as an Agricultural Field Officer in Corporation Bank in May 1983. He has a wide and varied exposure of over 35 years in the gamut of Banking, at both Operational and Administrative levels. Prior to joining Punjab & Sind Bank in February 2017, he was Circle General Manager with Corporation Bank.

In a career spanning over three decades, he has worked in various places and capacities in key segments of Banking. He has headed large Branches and Zones of the bank throughout the country viz. Ahmedabad, Bangalore, Jaipur, Kolkata, Andhra Pradesh etc. He has established a track record of success in all his roles and won Corporate Awards for more than ten times. In his current assignment as Executive Director, his role has been instrumental in revamping the bank with a multi pronged approach towards development of all the areas of Bank.

He has been conferred with “Best HR Leader in PSUs 2017” by Asia Pacific Congress; “Transformative Leader Award” in National APY Conference 2017 by PFRDA; “Pride of Delhi Award for Excellence in HR” by World HRD Congress, 2017 and “100 Top Most Influential BFSI Leaders” in World BFSI Congress & Awards 2018 by World CSR Day & World Sustainability Congress.

He has attended prestigious training programmes conducted by College of Agriculture Banking (CAB), Pune; National Institute of Banking Management (NIBM), Pune; Indian Institute of Management (IIM), Ahmedabad; Jawaharlal Nehru Institute for Development Banking (JNIDB), Hyderabad; Infosys, Mysore; APRACA CENTRAB, Manila and Lincoln University, New Zealand. He has also attended a Special Recognition Marketing Workshop in Malaysia in 2011.

He holds a PHD Degree in Management for his thesis titled ‘Analysis and Modeling of Management of Asset Quality in Public and Private Sector Banks in India’. His other academic/professional credentials include a Masters Degree in Agriculture, CAIIB, PG Diploma in Co-operation & Rural Studies, Diploma in Law & Banking and certificate courses in various areas of Banking vis Trade Finance, Corporate Banking & SME Finance etc.