

Sudarshan Sen
Executive Director
Reserve Bank of India

Sudarshan Sen is a senior officer in the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) with over 32 years of experience in various capacities in the Bank. He is currently holding the post of Executive Director, the regulator of banks and non-banking financial companies. He has wide experience in various areas such as banking regulation, bank supervision, human resources, information technology, currency management and general administration.

He holds postgraduate degrees in mathematics and in international banking and finance. He serves on various government committees on national policy matters and also represents RBI on the Supervision and Implementation Group of the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision.