

A founding member of Fino Paytech Limited, Rishi leads a team which focusses on realising Fino's vision of being the preferred choice of customers. The team works relentlessly to fulfil the financial needs of all their customers because of which Fino secured an in-principle approval from the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) to set up a Payments Bank.

In his previous role as COO and CFO, Rishi successfully built and managed cutting-edge operational and financial capabilities at Fino.

Before joining Fino, Rishi worked with the International Finance Corporation (IFC) in New Delhi, India. He was also the founding member of the Business Correspondent Federation of India (BCFI) and served as the Chairman of its Economic Affairs Committee.

Rishi brings over two decades of diverse experience across verticals like manufacturing, banking and international institutions. He began his career with Maruti Udyog Limited and then joined ICICI Bank, from where he advanced to senior roles.

In 2011, 2012 and 2013, Rishi was awarded the "CFO100 Roll of Honour". He also bagged the "The Indian CFO Award for Excellence in Finance in a Start-up" by the IMA in 2013.

A certified Rank Holder Chartered Accountant and Cost & Works Accountant, Rishi holds a Baccalaureate in Commerce from Shri Ram College of Commerce (SRCC), Delhi, India.

Outside of work, Rishi enjoys reading, watching movies, and travelling with his family.